AUCTION SALES.

THE STEEL SALE.
—OF—
AVAILABLE WAREHOUSE AND WHARF PROPERTY.

By virtue of a deed of trust made the 15th day of April, 1881, by Benjamin J. Burgess, recorded under No. 2, page 161, of the land records of Alexandria, Virginia, default in payment having occurred, and by direction of the beneficiary named in the deed, I will offer for sale by public auction, in front of the entrance to the court room, on Fairfax street, in the city of Alexandria, Va., on

SAVEDAY, the 1st day of July, 1882,
at 12 o'clock, on the following valuable property,

ALL OF THAT LOT OF GROUND with the PROPER K WAREHOUSE and other improvements thereon, in the said city of Alexandria, Va., bounded as follows: Beginning at a point on the east side of Union street 118 feet 4 inches north of Duke street and at the north line of R. R. Viaduct lot, and running thence north on Union street 20 feet, thence east parallel to Duke street into the Potomac river; thence south and parallel with Union street 30 feet; thence west a straight line to the beginning, of which said lot of ground, a strip five feet wide on the northern part thereof fronting on Union street, and extending east to Potomac Street, as been laid out in part of a lot of ground, with the use of said alley in common with others entitled thereto, and all rights and appurtenances to the said lot of ground belonging.

Also ALL THAT DOCK or water lot, lying east of that one of the dock which front on the Strand, and which lands on the south side of a wharf formerly owned by Joseph H. Davis; said dock or water lot being in front 28 feet, and running eastward the same width as in front, into the Potomac river, with the use of the south side of the dock and wharf, and all rights and appurtenances of every kind to the said dock or water lot belonging. Terms of sale: Cash. PETER WISE,

PRICES REDUCED.—The prices of the "WOOD-BINE MILLS WRAPPING" have this day (May 1st) been GREATLY REDUCED. These papers were always the BEST in the market, and at today's prices they are the CHEAPEST.

WRAPPING PAPER!
WOODBINE MILLS!
LABEL REGISTERED.
GUARANTEED FULL COUNT.
February 5th, 1878.

18 SHEETS TO THE QUIRE.
STRAW WRAPPING, to be full (Standard) count, should have 18 sheets in each Quire, and 20 Quires to each bundle.

There is much paper now being sold with only 15 sheets to the quire, and in some cases as few as 12 sheets. These facts are not known to the consumer; the paper being low in price, they do not think of the number of sheets they get in a bundle.

Count your PAPER. Ask for "WOOD-BINE MILLS" and take nothing else, as this brand is guaranteed to be FULL (Standard) count, and is far cheaper to the consumer than a lower priced paper, put up with less sheets to the Quire.

Ask the man you buy of to give you WOODBINE MILLS Wrapping, and take nothing else, as this paper is the cheapest in the market.

COUNT, QUALITY, WEIGHT AND COLOR considered. If you cannot get it of the firm you deal with, try elsewhere. Do not be induced to buy any paper but the WOODBINE MILLS.

STRENGTH

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

501 N. Fremont St., Baltimore.
During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago I brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and am after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving. G. DECKER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.

The Moslem Temple.
There is a belief of long standing among the Greeks of Constantinople that the church of Santa Sophia, now a mosque, shall be restored to Christianity. This grand building, which covers about 70,000 square feet, more than one and a half acres—was erected by Justinian in the sixth century. It was eight years in building, and when at last it stood complete, it appeared so marvelous in the eyes of all who saw it that it was generally believed not only that an angel had given the plan, but that heaven rained gold and gems for the express purpose of its construction.

The noblest temples of Greece and Asia were despoiled, and pillars of the most precious marbles were brought to Constantinople. Ephesus, Pergamos, Baalbees, gave up their treasures, and masses of Egyptian porphyry and syenite, which centuries before had been hewn for the honor of Tems and Artemis, took their places in the great Christian church. It was the boast of Justinian that he had excelled the temple at Jerusalem.

"I have surpassed thee, oh, Solomon!" he exclaimed, as he gazed upon the completed building; and it is said that he caused a statue of Solomon to be erected opposite the church, with a sad expression, as though grieving at the vast size and beauty of Justinian's work.

Earthquakes shook the church within a few years of its completion. The great dome fell, and was restored by a younger Isidorus, nephew of the mechanician. Repairs were made to the fabric by successive emperors; but the design was never altered and there were no additions. Then came the fatal May of 1453. At the high altar of St. Sophia, Constantine received the holy sacrament during the night, before the great assault (May 29), in which he fell.

As the news spread that the Mohammedans had made their way into the city, the old awe and veneration which had spread a sort of mystery around St. Sophia returned. Senators, priests, monks and nuns hastened to take refuge within its walls, recalling an ancient tradition that an angel would descend at the moment when the infidels were advancing toward the column of Constantine the Great, and putting a sword into the hand of a certain man, who would be sitting at the base of the column, would order him to avenge the people of God; whereupon the Turks, seized with a panic, would take to flight to the borders of Persia.

But no such heavenly aid came to the twenty thousand people who crowded St. Sophia. Mohammed, on entering the city, rode directly to the great church. Many women and children were divided among the soldiers as slaves; and all furniture, plate and ornaments disappeared so quickly that in the words of Einley, "the mighty temple soon presented few traces of having been a Christian church."

Mohammed himself was, it is said, greatly impressed with the rich marbles and splendor of the place. He caused the muzzies who were with him to summon the troops to prayer; and his own prayer-carpet was spread on the high altar. There the "Son of Iniquity," as the Christian Deacons call him, announced that an orthodox Greek Empire was extinct; and from that time the church of Justinian has served as the chief mosque of the city.
